

CARRIER is required to have its Insurance Agent send a certificate of liability. The Certificate of Insurance should be mailed or faxed to EBIX; UPCS' web based Insurance Management Provider: Union Pacific Railroad Company, EBIX -Insurance Compliance, P.O. Box 12010-UP, Hemet, CA 92546-8010. EBIX Fax number 951-652-2869

3. CARRIER will invoice all charges for transportation services directly to UPCS, and CARRIER shall provide UPCS with a copy of the signed bill of Lading and delivery receipt (if needed). UPCS agrees to pay CARRIER for its services rendered hereunder, upon written receipt of proof of delivery and bill of lading, in accordance with the rates set forth on the UPCS's PRE-NOTE (Advance Shipment Notification). Modifications or additions to these rates may be agreed to in writing or may be made verbally to meet specific shipping schedules. Confirmation of verbally agreed rates must be made by a summary E-Mail, faxed or Letter from CARRIER to UPCS. If UPCS pays the freight invoice in a reduced amount, such amount shall constitute the agreed rate, unless CARRIER indicates to the contrary to UPCS within sixty (60) days of its receipt of payment. All modifications and additions to the rates made either in writing or verbally and confirmed in writing, or as established by the billing and payment by the parties together with the underlying freight bills shall be deemed as addendum to and considered a part of this Agreement. UPCS invoice instructions will be provided to CARRIER separately from this Agreement.

The Parties agree that UPCS shall be solely responsible for payment of CARRIER's charges and under no circumstance will CARRIER seek payment from UPCS's customer, the shipper or the consignee of any shipment tendered to CARRIER under this AGREEMENT. Upon receipt of payment, CARRIER automatically assigns all of its rights to payment from shippers, consignees, or third parties to UPCS.

4. UPCS and CARRIER agree that transportation services hereunder are to be in compliance with 49 USC 10102 by assigning tractor, driver (s) and conveyance for a movement for the exclusive use of UPCS or by providing specialized services or equipment designated to meet the distinctive needs of UPCS and our customers. Such services shall include, when applicable, but shall not be limited to: protective service multiple stops in transit, "POWER ONLY", direct dispatch, drop shipments, inside deliveries, spotting trailers, and expedited shipments.
5. CARRIER will be responsible to comply with all applicable FMCSA and U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT) regulation as well as all other federal or state regulations pertaining to the operations of a motor carrier.
6. CARRIER represents and warrants that it will comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to the transportation of Hazardous Materials as defined in 49 CFR §173 et seq to the extent that any shipments transported by CARRIER under this Agreement constitute Hazardous Materials. In such instance(s), CARRIER shall be solely responsible for any violation of the applicable laws and regulations and shall defend, indemnify, and hold UPCS and its customers harmless from any liability incurred, including, but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees arising from any non-compliance.
7. CARRIER shall keep accurate records of shipments covered by this Agreement and designated UPCS personnel or its agent shall, at reasonable times, have the right to inspect such records kept by CARRIER for the purpose of determining compliance with the terms of this Agreement.
8. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years thereafter, UPCS, or its designated third party agent, shall have the right to audit any pertinent shipping weight, reconciliation and financial records, including those that substantiate CARRIER's charges to UPCS for services CARRIER performed under this Agreement. Unless otherwise arranged with CARRIER, all audits and inspections shall be conducted by UPCS or its designated third party agent during normal business hours, in such a manner as to minimize any disruption to CARRIER's operations.
9. CARRIER shall issue a bill of Lading in its own name and shall be liable to the owner of the freight for full actual loss and damage to the freight transport under this Agreement while in the care or custody of the CARRIER. CARRIER shall comply with 49 CFR §370.1 et. seq. and any amendments and/or any other applicable regulations issued or adopted by the FMCSA or DOT, for processing all loss and damage claims and salvage, which arise out of the discharge of CARRIER's duties and responsibilities hereunder; and

- a) The burden of proof for CARRIER's liability for any cargo damage, loss, or theft from any cause shall be determined under the Carmack Amendment, 49 USC §14706; and
 - b) Special Damages: Any liability of CARRIER under Paragraphs 6 and 9 shall constitute special damages, the risk of which is expressly assumed by CARRIER, and which shall not be limited by any liability under subparagraph. (a) above.
 - c) Consequential Damages: Unless otherwise mutually agreed in writing, neither party shall be liable to the other or to any shipper for any indirect or consequential damages (such as, but not limited to, loss of profits, loss of market, loss of customer goodwill, assembling line shutdowns, or punitive or exemplary.
10. CARRIER represents and warrants that it agrees to hold UPCS harmless from and indemnify UPCS for any liability resulting from loss or damage to any freight transport by CARRIER pursuant to this Agreement including all cost to defend claims. CARRIER also agrees to hold UPCS harmless from and indemnify UPCS for any liability resulting from personal injury or property damage which may occur during the operations of CARRIER pursuant to this Agreement including all cost to defend claims. Freight transported from, to, or within Canada and/or Mexico is subject to the laws of those respective countries while any shipment is moving over the highways of either respective country.
 11. UPCS will identify its customers to CARRIER as each first load from each customer is offered to CARRIER. If CARRIER accepts the load and moves the freight this will acknowledge that this new customer is a UPCS customer. CARRIER has ten (10) days after such "first load" moves to challenge, in writing, why the customer should not be considered a UPCS customer. In any case of challenge, UPCS and CARRIER will agree in writing exactly how this customer will be handled.
 12. CARRIER and UPCS acknowledge and agree that this contract does not bind the respective parties to exclusive services to each other. Either party may enter into similar agreements with other carriers, brokers, or freight forwarders.
 13. CARRIER agrees to support and protect UPCS's efforts in performance of this Agreement by refraining from any direct contact or solicitation of UPCS's Customers. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years from the time of the termination of this Agreement, CARRIER shall not, directly or indirectly solicit or do business of a transportation or warehousing nature with any of UPCS's customers who are serviced by CARRIER as a result of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to in writing.
 14. The relationship of CARRIER to UPCS shall, at all times, be that of an independent contractor except that UPCS shall be the agent for CARRIER for the collection and payment of charges to CARRIER. CARRIER agrees that it will look only to UPCS for payment if the billed party has paid UPCS, unless otherwise notified.
 15. In cases where, after movement of freight, the ultimate payer of the freight charges for any reason defaults on payment, CARRIER and/or UPCS, after both parties agree in writing, may proceed against the debtor at a cost ratio and collection ratio equal to the ratio applicable to their respective receipts agreed to on the original movements(s), including attorney fees, court costs, and costs to defend counter suits.
 16. Obligations of this Agreement are separate and divisible and in the event that any clause is deemed unenforceable, the balance of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.
 17. CARRIER agrees that UPCS's compensation hereunder for its services are confidential and need not be disclosed to CARRIER. CARRIER further agrees that it will not reveal to anyone the terms of this Agreement, the pricing of transportation service, or any other details of the business conducted between CARRIER and UPCS.
 18. In the event of a material breach by CARRIER of any provisions of this Agreement, UPCS shall have the right to withhold and/or set off any payments owing to CARRIER and/or received from shippers which UPCS is obligated to pay CARRIER. The right of withholding and/or setoff is not an exclusive remedy and UPCS shall have and may exercise all other remedies it may have at law or in equity against CARRIER.

- 19. No party may disclose any of the terms of this Agreement to any non-party without the prior written consent of the other party
20. This Agreement is intended for the sole benefit of the signatories to this Agreement and is binding upon their respective successors and assigns.
21. In the event of a dispute arising out of this Agreement that cannot be resolved by negotiations of the parties, any state or federal court seated in the Omaha, Nebraska, shall be deemed to be the Court of jurisdiction and venue for any litigation, special proceeding or other proceeding as between the parties that may be brought, or arise out of, in connection with, or by reason of this Agreement;
22. If either CARRIER or UPCS is prevented from or delayed in performing any of its obligations under this Agreement by reason of statutes, regulations, or orders of a governmental entity (including actions taken by a court or by law enforcement officials), or because of war, terrorism, acts of God, labor disturbances, civil unrest, or any cause beyond the reasonable control of such party, that party shall not be liable to the other party for damages resulting from any delay or suspension of performance resulting from such legal restraints or force majeure.
23. Except to the extent that use of the parties' respective names or trade names is necessary or appropriate for purposes of preparing Uniform Receipts, invoices or other shipping documentation, or for tracking and tracing purposes, neither party may use the other party's name, logo(s), service mark(s), trade name(s), copyrights, patents or other intellectual property, except by advance written permission of such other party.
24. This contract is binding upon the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, and shall be construed under the laws of the state of Nebraska.
25. This Agreement shall be deemed to be effective on the first date that CARRIER and UPCS commenced business together and the parties agree that the provisions contained herein properly express and memorialize the complete understanding of the parties as contained in all prior agreements, both verbal or in writing. This Agreement shall be effective continuously subject to the right of either party hereto to cancel this Agreement at any time upon not less than thirty (30) days written notice of one party to the other.
